US Warns Israel – There Will Be No ‘USS Liberty Pt II’

For the last 41 years, Israel’s attack on the USS Liberty has been a taboo topic about which neither the Jewish state nor the US has allowed free and open discussion. Like a paid-off judge in the service of organized crime interests pounding his gavel on the bench, for the last 4 decades Israel and her supporters in the US government have bellowed ‘case closed’ and have raked over the coals anyone—including the survivors of the attack themselves—from arguing otherwise. Realizing the tidal wave of outrage that would occur if the American people were to come of age and lose their innocence in realizing what Israel did in murdering 34 American servicemen 4 decades ago in a premeditated act of war (to say nothing of the cover-up perpetrated by the US government) it has been on the list of forbidden topics.....until recently.

Cutting short his trip to Europe the first week of July, recently-appointed Chairman of the Joint Chiefs Adm. Mike Mullen flew to Tel Aviv along with an entourage of high-ranking US military personnel and, upon his arrival, rushed to meet with the highest-ranking members of Israel’s military establishment. While this is not unusual (as many such meetings have been taking place as of late) what was unusual was the topic discussed–Israel’s attack on the USS Liberty 41 years ago during the 6 day war and how ‘important’ it was that ‘history not repeat itself,’ given the present tensions existing between Israel and Iran. Considering the subject of that meeting and the well known cover-up that has taken place these last 41 years, the meeting should have made headline news all over America. Sadly, however, it did not, just another testimony to the fact that America is now officially ‘occupied territory’ every bit as much as Arab Palestine.

The fact that the meeting took place at all is news enough, but what is of even more importance is what can be inferred from the meeting. Given the fact that this brazen 2 hour attack upon the United States by Israel was officially upheld by the President of the United States, this information can only mean one thing–that the US military establishment is in the pocket of the Jewish state and will continue to be as long as Israel’s political masters keep it in that position.
States has been hushed up these last 41 years, there can be little else to conclude by Mullen's meaning other than the obvious: That someone from within the intelligence or military apparatus of the United States has looked towards the horizon and concluded that Israel is planning a 'USS Liberty Pt II', meaning an attack on a US ship, most likely in the Persian Gulf, leading to a massive loss of life to be then blamed on Iran. As was intended in 1967 when Israel attacked the Liberty, Americans would be incensed into such a war frenzy that they would demand the 'obliteration' (a la Hillary Clinton) of the guilty party, the false identity of which the Jewish media establishment in America would be all too glad to provide. And while all players involved have been tight-lipped about the particulars of this story, what can be concluded nevertheless is that Mullen's impromptu trip to Israel and subsequent discussion was in effect a stern warning to Israel of 'Don't even think about it bubba'.

Those who suspect that Mullen (a company man not cut from the same cloth as the recently 'retired' Adm. William Fallon) has been afflicted with a sudden case of patriotic fever should consider this recent news against the more likely backdrop of sheer pragmatism. The sad fact is, patriotism more than likely had little to do with it. The US is having its rear end handed to it in Iraq and Afghanistan and now some in Washington are beginning to realize that they've just put their foot into something nasty with regards to Israel's dirty wars in the Middle East that will never be finished as long as she exists. With oil and virtually all consumer products skyrocketing in price simultaneous to the US economy going down the drain, some now understand that by signing on as Israel's pit bull in the Muslim world that America will wind up paying the ultimate price for her devotion to the Jewish state, meaning the complete destruction of her economy and her position as a world power.

It is no secret Mullen is very friendly when it comes to the great experiment in Jewish self rule in the Middle East as well as his willingness to tow the line with regards to the sworn enemies of that great experiment. Immediately after the release of the National Intelligence Estimate in early December of 2007 stating that Iran had no nuclear weapons program America's highest ranking military officer high-tailed it to Israel (the first Chairman of the Joint Chiefs to do so in a decade) to reassure her of America's support that would last '1,000 years'.

As of late however, America's top general officer seems to be singing a different tune with regards to widening the present debacle to include war with Iran that stands the very real chance of bringing into the fray nuclear-armed nations such as Russia and China. Out of necessity therefore he has now joined with saner voices both inside and outside the Bush administration who are trying to prevent an otherwise apocalyptic end to America. In discussing an attack on Iran Mullen recently stated that opening a third front would be 'extremely stressful' on the US military and added that it would lead to consequences 'difficult to predict', adding that 'There is need for better clarity, even dialogue at some level.'

And this, added to all the other things taking place these days (not excluding of course the talk of withdrawing US troops from Iraq) is what is making Israel jittery to the point she would contemplate pulling off another 'USS Liberty'. For the sake of her own survival she simply cannot afford to have her 'fixer' in the Middle East walk away from a 'hit' to which he has been assigned, and it is for this reason that forward thinking people in the US are beginning to sense Israel may soon pull a few surprises out of her infamous black bag of dirty tricks.

Once the stomping grounds solely of 'anti-Semitic conspiracy theorists' that the Jewish state might pull a fast one in order to get the US involved in a war for her own interests, now 'respectable' people have begun to voice such thoughts openly as well. In a recent piece appearing in an issue of American Conservative Magazine entitled 'If Iran is Attacking, It Might Really Be Israel', ex-CIA officer Phillip Giraldi writes as follows:

'Some intel types are beginning to express concerns that the Israelis might do something completely crazy to get the US involved. There are a number of possible “false flag” scenarios in which the Israelis could stage an incident that they will make to look Iranian, either by employing Iranian weapons or by leaving a communications footprint that points to Tehran's involvement. Those who argue Israel would never do such a thing should think again. Israel is willing to behave with complete ruthlessness towards the US if they feel that the stakes are high enough. Witness the attack on the USS Liberty and the bombing of the US Consulate in Alexandria in the 1950s. If they now believe that Iran is a threat that must be eliminated it is not implausible to assume they will stop at nothing to get the United States to do it for them, particularly as their air force is only able to damage the Iranian nuclear program, not destroy it.'
 Joined alongside Giraldi is former long-time CIA analyst Ray McGovern who in his most recent piece ‘Israel Planning a September/October Surprise?’ writes the following with regards to the US pulling out of the Middle East and what Israel might do as a result–

‘My guess is the Israeli leaders are apoplectic…This dramatic change — or even just the specter of it — greatly increases Israel’s incentive to ensure US involvement in the area that would endure for several years. The Israelis need to create “facts on the ground” — something to guarantee Washington will stand by “our ally.” The legislation drafted by AIPAC calls for a blockade of Iran. That would be one way to entangle; there are many others. The point is that the growing danger the Israelis perceive will probably prompt them to find a way to get the US involved in hostilities with Iran. All Israel has to do is to arrange to be attacked. Not a problem. There are endless possibilities among which Israel can choose to catalyze such a confrontation. Viewed from Tel Aviv it appears an increasingly threatening situation, with more urgent need to “embed” (so to speak) the United States even more deeply in the region — in a confrontation involving both countries with Iran. A perfect storm is brewing…In sum, Israel is likely to be preparing a September/October surprise designed to keep the US bogged down in Iraq and in the wider region by provoking hostilities with Iran. And don’t be surprised if it starts as early as August…

Readers will recall that American Free Press newspaper predicted in the aftermath of the National Intelligence Estimate being released that the prospect of war with Iran being cancelled (or delayed) would likely result in Israel resorting to desperate measures in getting her way. AFP further speculated that the timing of the release of the NIE was suspicious, coming just a few days before Dec 7, the day Americans remember the attack on Pearl Harbor and that possibly the release of the report was timed to prevent a sneak attack by an Israeli sub on a US ship stationed in the Persian Gulf.

For her part, Israel is attempting to play the role of the innocent, cooperative and concerned ally in the wake of Mullen’s meeting by summoning Judge Jay Cristol, a federal bankruptcy judge in Miami and devoted Zionist who wrote a book in 2002 excoriating Israel of any wrongdoing in the Liberty attack. He is lecturing at military academies in Haifa and Ashdod on how to avoid the “mistakes” that led to the attack on the Liberty.

One thing is for certain. Out of all the topics to be discussed with his Israeli counterparts, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs Mullen picked the topic of the USS Liberty, and not because he felt nostalgic, sentimental or even—Heaven forbid—guilty over the way the Liberty survivors have been treated these last 41 years. He, like many within the military and intelligence establishment, no doubt realizes that America sits at the precipice of destruction and is no doubt trying to pull her back before that proverbial ‘point of no return’ is reached, if in fact it has not been reached already.

And as sobering a theme as all this may be, the fact is that it may turn out to be much worse. What Israel wants, Israel gets, and the fact that an attack on a US ship has been thwarted does not mean that the fat lady has sung, as now the likelihood of a false flag attack on the American mainland has been made all the more probable. This time however, just for good measure and for spite, it might not be a city building coming down after being struck by an airliner, but rather an entire city being consumed in a mushroom cloud, courtesy of a place called Dimona and a criminal organization known as Mossad.

One must wonder why the Enterprise is stationed within range of Israel.

Oh really, after the Fake state of Israel TORPEDOED american war boat, yeah I said B O A T, who cares, take it up with your Masters the Fake Israelis! There was 911 that even your ex-prez bush laughed in americans faces on national tv when he said that Iraq had NOTHING to do with 911. You did NOTHING then, so if they FK you UP again which is MOST LIKELY...WHO CARES!!! YOU and ONLY YOU asked for it!

Who's in charge?

Chairman of the Joint Chiefs Mullen may have been "ironic," as in double-talk, when he met with the Israelis. Obama, the "liberal," and one of "color," can't o.k. the out-and-out ethnic cleansing of Palestine. Therefore, Obama told the Israelis, with double-talk, to INCREASE settlement activity, and it has dramatically increased!!! Romney not only will o.k. the out-and-out ethnic cleansing of Palestine (because Romney is a Mormon), but is being put in office for precisely that reason. What has the Jews so rapidly wanting to out-and-out ethnically cleanse Palestine, when they had been so excited about a two-term "presidency" of poop itself? The Jews can't be tired of double-talk, it's how they are "programmed to function." It's probably the old "you give an inch, and they take a mile."

HR 4133, dubbed the "United States-Israel Enhanced Security Cooperation Act of 2012," makes it "the policy of the United States to help Israel preserve its qualitative military edge" and "to provide Israel the military capabilities necessary to deter and defend itself against any threats." Talk about carte-blanch!!! And don't forget the Global Anti-Semitism Review Act of 2004. Why was the Mormon Ron Paul instructed to vote against the United States-Israel Enhanced Security Cooperation Act of 2012 (1 of only 2 in the House to do so)? I think it's to make it look as though there is nothing essential to Mormonism that condones ethnic cleansing, and that the American People had a "choice" between two morons and chose genocide.

chen is right. No one did anything when Iraq was invaded even though they didn't understand "why" we were invading Iraq. They were too busy watching "American Idol" and "Comedy Central."

Those of us who did speak out were called cowards and "un-American because we did not support that or any other war.

Watch out for a false flag attack at the London Olympics.

The WORLD would be at PEACE if not for Isreal! It can never know PEACE because of it!

The quiet. We will see what happens, Israel likes to perceive itself as an aggressive attack dog, even when unprovoked. How dare the USA try to push around the adorable little crime entity with the US's phoney threats? Israel does as it likes, when it likes.

This zionist conspiracy to defraud Palestinians of their homes, land and property is exposed, hell it's spread eagled to all who care to know about it. This is a great moral problem in our time, as slavery was in the mid-18-hundreds - this unashamed theft of land operates with all the privilege, with all the sense of entitlement, like an aristocracy. It is a question of equality the contention that the Jewish people are chosen, are more spiritual, etc.

Nice work, MG.

I understand the Jewish people are the "chosen" but I realize that they are chosen by the devil.
These demonic people will always find something to blame on others. They have done it for thousands of years, they are the masters of lying and they get away with just about everything they want. They provoked the French revolution through the Illuminati, they provoked the Russian revolution through new ideologies that they hated later, they provoked the WWI and WWI and now they are provoking uprisings everywhere in the Middle East and North Africa.

"There is no other race to be more diabolical than the Jewish race."

A very well written article, Mark. You have a talent. It's nice to see you are putting it to good use: the pursuit of justice.

I wish the USA had the power to order the illegitimate colonizers of Palestine not to try another naval & air attack against USA naval & military, people, ships, equipment.

What is boggling is that this is 'normal' discourse with the language twistes, the zionists, the israeli firsters, with their convoluted logic that goes no where.

Can you imagine USA cowing before Syria in this style?

Please do not attack us, as you have in the past. O Israel, in efforts to instigate WWIII by coercing the USA to start carpet bombing Syria. Again, I wish the US would rain in the thugs wrapped in the star of david.

Mark G wrote this Article five years ago. And it is more applicable than ever. This June 8th, 2013. The threat to world peace is 'Israel' and her enablers inside the Beltway.

It took 41 years and this alone is totally ridiculous. Blame this on Admiral McCain and later on his son, Johnny McCain the singer!

After reading this article, I see no reason to believe that any such warning has been given. In fact, it seems much more likely that the US is collaborating with Israel for the purpose of a false flag attack against an American ship or base in the region to be blamed on Syria (with Iran's backing, of course). Once Syria is invaded then the real target, Iran, can be hit. This will be a catastrophic mistake on the part of the US and Israel, but the leaders of both of these nations have proven themselves to be insane.

Interesting article. You may have predicted something here that can happen any day now. It makes so much sense. Even though you wrote this on June 8, 2008, there can be a BIG bang for the anniversary of 9/11. Last year was Benghazi and that turned out to be a mess. Why not plan something a little more perfect? Will the people believe that Israel would be responsible? Will they believe the lies presented? Will the US cover up or finally cut ties? Does the US know thy enemy? Does the enemy know the US too well? Many are deployed throughout the Middle East (I think may I add). Are there enough here to protect the US? Are we to rely on Police States to protect the citizens? Wars are in progress at this moment, whether people want to call it WWIII or not, its war out there. We hear everyday troops are killed, but not Jewish troops. Do people actually think about what is happening out there? Babes join the military thinking they are doing their country and themselves a service, when in fact they are doing the opposite. How can we get frontier troops against these atrocities to come out and speak to the youth? They have stones to share. It will take a military revolution to wake the masses up. Put down try arms, literally. Many schools are being shut down in low income cities and they suffer so much, and many are forced to join the military, its all being done for a reason and I see how it works now. They have made dummies out of our future generations. Doesn't this make anyone angry?

USS Liberty II was carried out on 911. Mullen and his aholes were part of it. Don't tell me the Pentagram isn't a wholly owned subsidiary of the Russian Mafia-Israel. The most recent 'military exercise' in Jordan? Operation "Eager Lion". Pulseee JCOS, you're killin' me.

The world is awakening, and this is a Video of the explosion of the 22 July in Norway's capital Oslo, when the Terrorist act was committed and this act was NOT committed and done as we are told and after the late Boston bombing, everything is turned around, even physics.

Watch this, and remember this explosion happened right infront of this building, and across the street, so this is physically impossible to happen if this is what They tell us it is, namely the result of an Carbomb of hundreds of kilos Nitrat/a.s.o.

This explosion comes from INSIDE, and goes OUT.

And I know where right in the beginning, this is an Zionist/NeoCon attack on a sovereign land, killing innocents and children, which only fault was begin on the wrong place at the wrong time and slaughtered, and this slaughter was conducted by a Group, of 3 persons at least.

And ONE of them flew directly to Israel, the very same day.

Like the USS Liberty, this youths were sacrificed, by traitors and criminals.

The awakening is and will soon morph into anger.

peace
